

Directions for the instruction Information Literacy

Welcome to this instruction!

First read these directions carefully. If you have any questions, ask one of the instructors present here.

In advance

- You need your Net-ID (and password) to access Blackboard (if not yet: arrange it immediately via the Faculty Service point!)
- Use Internet Explorer as browser, some parts of the instruction do not work correctly in Firefox.
- At one point you're going to see a YouTube-film with sound. Please use earphones or adjust the sound level of your PC to not disturb others. No sound? Don't panic, it's not critical for the rest of the instruction and you can always look at the film by yourself at a later moment.
- The instruction takes about two hours, when you have finished please fill in the online evaluation form at the end. Make sure that you have signed the attendance list before leaving.

How to start?

1. Go to Blackboard (<http://blackboard.tudelft.nl>) and log in with your Net-ID;
